About this Release

15/1/2008 This manual is currently being revised.

The Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) Publishing and Dissemination Manual guides ABS publishing activities in support of client discovery and use of ABS information. It is an internal document which has been published to allow users to better understand ABS publishing practices and therefore ABS information. The manual contains an overview of publishing in the ABS, and policy in relation to dissemination, products and their content. The manual is a live document, subject to additions and revisions as appropriate.
